

/continued

37/1. Transiation.

Christopher Rowntrye juror

Inquisition	Henry Brasse)	George)	Christopher)
for the	James Kierbye)	Butterwycke)	Farnabye)
lord there	William)	John Rowntrye)	John Langley)
	Tomlinson)	Christopher)	Christopher)	Jurors
	William)	Parkinson)	Calverd)
	Dowson)	Peter)	Henry Johnson)
		Hubbertson)	Richard Raym')
		Robert Mason)

William Brasse juror

Inquisition	Thomas)	Brian Lowson)	Giles Wilson)
for the	Bartram)	Nicholas)	Robert)
lord	Robert)	Bidnell)	Lowson)	Jurors
	Farnabye)	John Rowntrye)	Cuthbert)
	John)	husb')	Brasse)
	Lawrence)	Leonard)	Thomas Boyes)
	Marmaduke)	Butterwycke)
	Potter)	IOs.)

10s.

Who say upon their oath that Henry Potter made an assault on Robert Watson and drew blood upon him therefore he is in mercy as appears on his head Christopher^{10s.} Farnabye for the like upon Robert Rogerson therefore in mercy as appears on his head Ralph Greene^{12d.} for having in his custody boys and servants inhabiting within his house ["custodavit filios et servos in inhataciu"] in the night time against the pain therefore in mercy. Ralph Greene^{12d.} for slandering ["scandalizant"] the Jurors there William^{12d.} Watson for the like and Ralph Johnson^{12d.} for the like, the wife of Giles Wilson^{12d.} for the like Ralph Johnson^{8d.} for making an assault on Cuthbert Brasse in mercy as appears on his head

Verdict there

They also say upon their oath that Henry^{16d.} Watson had his horses doing damage in the cornfields to the great annoyance of the neighbours therefore in mercy Thomas^{16d.} Swinbanke for the like in the meadows Cuthbert^{12d.} Gibbon for the like Richard^{4d.} Gibbon for the like Christopher^{12d.} Dowson for tethering his horses with tethers ["funibus viz tedders"] too long in mercy William^{8d.} Garbott for baiting his horses on the balkes against the pain George^{2d.} Gibbon for the like, the wife of Bartram^{6d.} because her horses and cattle were in the cornfields John^{16d.} Rowntrye senior because he baited his horses in mercy Richard^{12d.} Busbye for the like John Langleye junior for the like

/continued